Our Next Meeting

Topic: "Recognizing and Assisting Victims of Abusive Relationships in Your Practice"

This program will focus on identifying victims of abusive relationships, responding in an appropriate way to signs of abuse, and referring victims to the right resources. An overview of the services available through the Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Center will be included. The speakers will also explain what pro bono opportunities are available, and will encourage all to take a case.

Speakers: Sarah B. Orr (Supervising Attorney, UC Davis Family Protection and Legal Assistance Clinic)
Debbie Jacobson (Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Center)

When: Thursday, February 17th at noon.

Where: Casa de Sapore (formerly Pietro's), 929 Court Street, Woodland

RSVP to Courtenay McKeon (Cmckeon@YoloCourts.com)
so that we can give the restaurant an accurate count.

The Yolo County Bar Association is a California State Bar approved provider of Minimum Continuing Legal Education programs and the program is approved for 1 hour of MCLE credit.

Family Law Mediation News

Beginning in March, the Yolo Superior Court will offer a Family Law Mediation Orientation on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month. A family law mediator will conduct sessions in Department 4 Multipurpose Room from 9-11 AM. The first session will be Tuesday, March 8.

All are encouraged to attend. The goal is to educate non-represented parties about the court process and to assist people in reaching an agreement on their parenting plan. Another important benefit of attending the orientation is that Peter Sapunor, Family Law Facilitator, will be able to give priority services to those who attend.

Submissions?

Send submissions for next month to Dan Maguire (maguirelaw@mac.com, 750 3661)
