

Yolo County Bar Association Newsletter

September 2006

Our Next Meeting

Topic: Legal Changes for 2006 (and a look ahead to 2007)

Speakers: Dorothy Thomson, Legislative Intent Service

When: Thursday, September 21, 2006 from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m.

Where: Casa de Sappore, Woodland.

Cost: $ 20*

This month Dorothy Thompson of Legislative Intent Service will provide an overview of significant legislative changes that took effect in 2006, and a discussion of how those changes may affect practitioners in a wide variety of practice areas. The program will also preview legislative changes that are on the horizon for 2007.

Please R.S.V.P. to Courtenay McKeon (<mailto:Courtenay@charter.net>) by Friday, September 15th so that we can give the restaurant an accurate count.

The Yolo County Bar Association is a California State Bar approved provider of Minimum Continuing Legal Education programs and the program is approved for 1 hour of MCLE credit.

 NOTE: Due to increased costs to the Association and unpredictability in RSVPs, the cost of Bar Association lunches has been increased to $20 per person, beginning in September 2006.*

YCBA Officers for 2007 to be Elected at Nov. Membership Meeting

The Yolo County Bar Association will be electing officers for the year 2007 at its November meeting. A potential slate of officers will be presented, but nominations are always welcome from the floor and self-nomination is perfectly acceptable. Any interested member should contact any officer for more information regarding the duties and obligations of being an officer.
